

CHINESE WEEK 2003:

Year of the Sheep

Chinese Week Short Story Contest

Phoenix Chinese Week is a non-profit association dedicated to promoting Chinese culture and education. This year, Chinese Week is offering a contest to students for the purpose of understanding what students know about Chinese culture. Chinese Week's goal is to present cultural awareness, diversity and knowledge regarding Chinese culture to our community and our younger generations.

- ❖ Eligibility: 5th to 8th grade students in Arizona are eligible to participate in this Chinese Week contest.
- ❖ Rules & Regulations: One entry per student. Entries must be original. Entries will be the property of Phoenix Chinese Week. No entries will be returned. Entries may be published in Chinese Week book, web site, brochure, posters, event report, or any other publications. Winners must be present to receive awards. A panel of judges will select entries; judge's decisions are final.
- ❖ Short Story Include: Entries must be typed and 500 words. Short story can be fiction or non-fiction, but the story needs to be about Chinese Culture, for example, experience with Chinese culture, trips, attending Chinese festivals, holidays, or food (Dim Sum).
- ❖ Topic: What I Know About the Chinese Culture
- ❖ Judging Criteria: Originality & Creativity: 50%; Content & Grammar: 50%
